

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

AMY L. GRAHAM,

Plaintiff,

v.

KILOLO KIJAKAZI, Commissioner of The Social Security Administration,

Defendant.

Case No. 20-CIV-407-RAW-SPS

ORDER REMANDING CASE FOR FURTHER PROCEEDINGS

On March 7, 2022, the United States Magistrate Judge entered a Report and Recommendation recommending that the above-styled case be reversed and remanded for further proceedings [Docket No. 16]. The Magistrate Judge found that correct legal standards were not applied by the Administrative Law Judge in failing to properly evaluate two medical source opinions and the decision of the Commissioner is therefore not supported by substantial evidence. The Commissioner filed an objection to the Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendation within the time prescribed by law 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); Fed. R. Civ. P. 72a [Docket No. 17] claiming that the Magistrate's Report and Recommendation was based on a misreading of the record.

Upon full consideration of the record and the issues herein, this court finds that the Magistrate Judge's recommendation to reverse and remand for further proceedings is well supported based upon the ALJ's failure to properly evaluate source opinions. Accordingly, the Report and Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge is hereby affirmed and adopted as this court's Findings and Order.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the decision of the Administrative Law Judge is hereby REVERSED and this case is hereby REMANDED pursuant to the fourth sentence of 42 U.S.C. §405(g) for further administrative proceedings.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 29th day of March, 2022.
